

Communication Studies 2.0 for Transfer

The AAT in Communication Studies is intended to align with preparation for transfer into the CSU system in similar fields of study. Communicating well and understanding the communication process are essential to professional success in many fields. People communicate to influence, to persuade, and to express. This degree encourages students to examine and evaluate human communication across and within various contexts for the purpose of increasing communication competence. Studying the communication process helps one understand how the human mind works. Areas of study include face to face interaction, group process, organizational communication, argument and debate, advocacy, intercultural communication, and interpersonal communication.
