

Woodworking Cabinetry, COP

The Woodworking Cabinetry Certificate is a one-year course of study designed to help prepare students for careers as independent designers and crafts workers, taking students from intermediate to advanced level of woodworking. The program consists of classes involving lecture and extensive lab time focused on the creation of furniture.

Requirements: 12 Units

Course	Title	Units
BCT200	Cabinetry I	3
BCT201	Cabinetry II	3
BCT202	Finish Cabinetry	3
BCT210	Interior Trim Carpentry	3

Total Required Units: 12